You can find the form on the booster website. You have to have a membership to be able to apply for the scholarship. Katie mentioned that someone could shadow Tiffany this year to take over her role next year. Jamie Smith volunteered to do it.
5. Fundraising – Lindsay Mikulencak said CCMY was great and the boys enjoyed it. Katie mentioned that the online fundraiser will be in January. Also, there will be no spring raffle ticket sales this year.

V. Old Business

Field projects – Things that have been completed is the right field fence, metal wind screens, new gutters on the outdoor batting cages, and cabinets in the office. Equipment that has been purchased is radar gun, training aids, and pitching machine. Katie mentioned that a few things that are in the works are net repairs, building a new wall, replacing bullpen turf and new banners on the dugouts.

VI. New Business

There is no new business at this time.

VII. Coach Carter Report

Coach Carter welcomed everyone. He showed the parents the PowerPoint that he showed on December 4th to the players. He shared with everyone what paperwork is needed for the boys to have completed before tryouts. He has been communicating with the them through SportsYou. Coach explained how tryouts were going to go. Tryouts start on January 17th. They will take place before school, during class period and after school. He said tryouts are tough and they take it very seriously. He uses a lot of measurables during tryouts. Some of these include velocity, accuracy, fielding, ball exit speed, hitting evaluation, mechanics, baseball IQ, 60's, home to 1st and 4 corners. Parents are allowed to watch tryouts, but not allowed on the field. Players are responsible for their glove, helmet and cleats. He asked that parents not buy new equipment before tryouts. Players can only wear RR clothing when they make the team. If a player currently has an injury, please come talk to Coach Carter.

Erin Appl mentioned that there will be a mandatory parent meeting and workday on January 25th. JV White and Maroon will practice Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 4:30 to 6:30pm. Varsity practices during class period and will go to about 5:30pm. Games will be on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.

Erin said that the communication outlets that are used are Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, SportsYou, GroupMe and through email.

Metal spikes can be worn on the field, but not in the PDC. Makers sure to have molded or turf shoes in the PDC.

Molded and metal shoes are needed for the season. Players will get a player package with 3 practice shirts, a game day hat, Strike Out Cancer hat and a new warmup. Players need to have a glossy maroon batting helmet. Players can only wear maroon or black long sleeves under their jerseys. They need grey or white pants for practice. Cleats need to be black or white.

If there isn't a game on a Friday or Saturday, there will be a practice. There will be games over Spring Break through Wednesday.

The first scrimmages are on February 1st. Meet the Dragons will be on February 15th as well as pictures and Kids Camp. The tournaments start on February 21st. District playoffs are in May and the state tournament in June.

If your son needs food before tryouts, you can meet them at the gate.

JV White players get pulled out early from school for their games. They need to talk to their teachers before this.

We need volunteers! Everyone needs to pitch in and help.
