Coach Carter welcomed everyone. He got a quote for $9,000 to replace the outdoor cage nets. It will be professionally done and will secure everything down. It will last 5 to 6 years at least. The bond will cover the net behind home plate and will be doubled in size. Two players have been hit in the face at the plate. Jacob who has been cleared, and Max, who will be cleared on the 17th. He's encouraged players to buy a face guard. If you can't find a maroon, black and gray are fine too. Freshman haven't gotten pants. They will have them by Friday. Scrimmages have gone well. You will see a lot of improvements through the tournaments. Maroon will play first on Friday so freshmen won't miss school since they will miss more throughout the season. The gate was welded for exchange for a sign. When announcing games, do not add, for example, "The Hulk" to names. Coach Carter bragged on the freshman. They are the cleanest freshman class he's ever had. Tournament parking will be bad. JV teams wear gray pants. Only varsity wears white. Dragon Scales start on Friday. Six players signed this morning. JV will represent the program on March 1st at the opening ceremonies for RRBL.
